Make History with Your Next Meeting

The Wyndham Philadelphia Historic hotel is just one block off Market Street and within walking distance of popular landmarks, including Independence National Park, Liberty Bell Center, Independence Hall, and Betsy Ross House. It's also minutes away from the Philadelphia Convention Center, Art Museum, the Barnes Foundation, Franklin Institute, Rittenhouse Square, Penn's Landing, and the Central Business District.

The hotel offers ten meeting rooms and a total of 8,000 square feet of flexible, high-tech function space. Multi-use breakout rooms are ideal for executive meetings, trainings, and more intimate gatherings, and the staff puts the same attention to detail into events large and small. Experienced planners and caterers will work closely with you on everything from menus, room selection and layout, to audio/visual and technical equipment, group accommodations, and transportation.

Whether you're staying for work or play, you'll find well-designed spaces and thoughtful conveniences to help you make the most of your stay, like free Wi-Fi, a seasonal rooftop pool, a fitness center, and the on-site Coins All-Day Eatery.
