

The New Yorker A Wyndham Hotel

480 8th Avenue, New York, NY

Click here to learn more about this hotel

Icon of the New York City Skyline

The New Yorker is a midtown icon, famous citywide puts you in the heart of Manhattan, steps from Penn Station, Times Square, the Javits Center, and more. The hotel offers 1,000+ guest rooms and suites in an Art Deco-inspired sanctuary.

The New Yorker is uniquely positioned to serve the needs of business travelers. Inside the hotel, enjoy 23,000 sq. ft. of flexible space, artfully decorated with historic architectural details. The stunning Grand Ballroom features 25-foot ceilings and can accommodate up to 600 people. Slightly smaller, the sleek Crystal Ballroom spans 3,250 sq. ft. and can host up to 250 people. On the third floor of the hotel is the Mark C. Wilenchick Conference Center, comprised of four distinct suites, hosting between 50 and 150 guests. For intimate events of up to 35 people, reserve the Sky Lounge on the 39th floor, where guests can take in incomparable views of the Empire State Building and Statue of Liberty.

The hotel's relationship with Metro Multi Media brings in state-of-the-art audiovisual equipment with a dedicated expert to help with everything from set up to troubleshooting. The expert catering team is on hand to create energizing menus that keep attendees focused.

23,000 7
Sq. ft. of flexible indoor meeting & event space

Total event rooms

6,000
Sq. ft. largest event room, Grand Ballroom seats 600

Property Highlights

- Total guest rooms: 1,050
- Total suites: 68
- 24-hour Tick Tock Diner and Trattoria Bianca on-site
- Easy access to Javits Convention Center, Madison Square Garden, Hudson Yards, Penn Station and Times Square
- Adjacent to Manhattan Center which can host groups ranging from 400 - 3,000
- Close to popular NYC tourist spots like Broadway, Radio City Music Hall, Rockefeller Center and more
- Approximately 15 miles from three airports (EWR, JFK and LGA)

Custom Destination Experience

- TIER 1 | One-night stay in an executive level room with breakfast for two
- TIER 2 | Two-night stay with breakfast for two in a suite and two concert tickets at the Manhattan Center valued at up to $1,500.*

Featured Amenities

- Bar
- Conference & Meeting Space
- 24-Hour Fitness Center
- Dry Cleaning/Laundry Services
- Room Service
- Catering and Banquet Facilities
- Business Center
- Parking Available
- Concierge

*The Manhattan Center, directly connected to the New Yorker, a Wyndham Hotel, hosts nearly 150 live performances a year in The Hammerstein Ballroom and The Grand Ballroom. This iconic venue plays host to various musical concerts, performances and sporting events, including e-sports. Ticket selection to be arranged between planner and hotel team and included in event contract.